WILLIAM TUCKER, MERCHANT TAILOR Would call the attention of his friends and the public generally to his stack of Goods now opening, which has been asketed by himself from the largest impostions houses in New York, and by first the greatest variety and richest styles I ever offered in this caty. Strangers are respectfully and earnestly solicited to give me a call and examine my stock before purchasing, as I am consident it will be to their advantage.

And I would especially call the attention of offerers, both of the army and the navy, to the fact that I am prepared to execute all kinds of uniforms, according to the late, regulations, at the shortes motice, and at moderate prices, warranted, both in the cutting and making departments, equal to any establishment in this country.

W. T. tenders his sincere thanks to his numerous friends for their long and continued patronage, and hopes, by the same diligence and attention to business, to merit a continuance of the same.

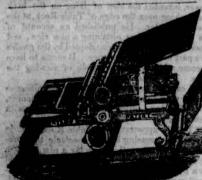

All orders promptly executed.

Tin Plate Workers.

Spring Maeufacturers.
Wheelwrights, Clock Makers Horologists, &c.

The publishers have expended a large sum of money to get original drawings of machinery in practical use in this country, and have procured almost every work on the sudject, whether published in England, France, or Germany, the moat essential parts of which being comprised in this Dictionary, render it as perfect and comprehensive as possible. The publishers have endeavored to use great economy in type, so that each page of the work contains at least four times the number of words found in ordinary pages of the same size. This has also secured to each plate working-drawings of ample size and clearness, so that a Meckanima y construct accurately any machine described.

The publishers are, in short determined, regardless of cost, to make the work as complete as possible; and it is hoped every one desirous to obtain the work will procure it as issued in numbers, and thus encourage the caterprise.

The work will be issued in semi-monthly numbers, commencing in January, 1859, and will progress with great regularity.

The whole work will be published in 40 numbers at 25 cents per number, and completed within the current year, 1850. A liberal discount will be made to agents.

Any one remitting the publishers $10 in advance shall receive the work through the post office free of expense. "FARMER'S GUIDE TO SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICA

We propose to prevent, for the precent, any increase of the evil of eitlier kind, and from the time another issue shall be made, our paper will furnish the additions, corrections, and modifications, made in each month, and by being filed and preserved, will afford to postmasters full and exact information upon both subjects, up to and for time being. How much of the present misdirection, remailing, doubt, confusion, error, addinposition, will be saved by the progressive state of full and exact knowledge, for which we have provided, and for which we engage, every intelligent postmaster can estimate for himself.

These advantages alone and independently of all thers, are worth many times the price we charge for the paper, and will, it is hoped, induce every postmaster who feels a just prule in his office, or a patriotic regard for the credit, prosperity, and efficiency of the whole Post Office system—at once to subscribe. The same considerations apply to the orders and notices, decisions, and instructions of the War, Navy, Treasury, State, and Interior lepartments, and the same course is intended in respect to them. A department of our paper addressing itself not merely to postmasters and other officers of the flowernment, but to all other citizens who give attention to the affairs of the nation and the progress and devolopment of the cautry, will embrace in a condensed form the matters submitted to, or arising in Congress. At each session a wast deal of valuable information is communicated to Congress, by the several departments and their subordinate bureaus, and profound and comprehensive reports are made by committees of both Houses. But the great mass of these documents and reports, except the brief notices of them, which from time to time appear in the public papers. The standing number printed of each document and report, is only twelve hundred in the Senate, and fourteen bundred in the House of Representatives, which at each shows the improviouslying of each discomination.
